2 VARIATIONS

- (a) The terms of Your agreement (including these Standard Terms), a Plan and any characteristics or features of the Services may be modified, added to or withdrawn by Vodafone at any time (Variations). - (b) If you Post Pay, a Variation in relation to Charges will not take effect until Your next billing period after the date of its implementation.

- (d) If You Post Pay and are within Your Commitment Period, We will give you at least 21 days' notice of any Variation that would cause more than a minor detriment to you and offer you the right to terminate Your agreement within 42 days of the date of our notice to you without incurring any fees or charges, including any applicable Early Termination Payments, other than:

We will provide such a refund in circumstances where it would be unreasonable for Us not to do so, having regard to the length of time between the notice being provided to You under clause 2(c) and the Variation taking effect, the amount and the expiry date of unused credit in Your Prepaid Account, and such other circumstances that We reasonably consider relevant.

9 HOW DO YOU PAY FOR THE SERVICE IF YOU ARE A POSTPAID CUSTOMER?

9.1 How will You be charged if You are a Postpaid Customer?

- (a) Subject to paragraph (e) below, when You choose any Postpaid Plan (including Month to Month Plans) You will be allocated to a bill cycle on or about the time You Connect. When you choose a combined service, such as a voice and data plan, or add a new Service to Your existing Vodafone account, you will receive one bill and remain on Your existing billing cycle.

As You will not have commenced Your first full billing period, unless the terms of Your particular Plan states otherwise, Your Minimum Monthly Spend, fees for associated services and any credit awarded will be calculated on a pro rata basis. Any unused credit awarded will be forfeited after this time. Your first bill will also contain Your Minimum Monthly Spend for the next full monthly billing period and any charges for any additional or excluded services You use or make during that initial period, or any charges for features or devices of a Service. Once you commence your full monthly billing period, the one month credit expiry period will apply.
- (e) We will endeavour to incorporate all Charges that You have incurred in Your next bill. However, sometimes Charges that You have incurred will appear on a later bill. We will not bill You for Charges that are older than 160 days from the date You incurred the Charge unless We are permitted to do so by a relevant industry code.
- (f) The value that is awarded with Your chosen Plan will appear on Your bill as a credit. Actual charges may vary on Your statement as each charge is rounded up to the nearest cent before GST is applied.

18 LIABILITY AND INDEMNITY

18.1 Consumer guarantees and Our liability to You

- (a) The Australian Consumer Law as set out in the Competition and Consumer Act 2010 (Cth) provides consumers with certain 'consumer guarantees'. These guarantees apply where the goods and services We supply to You are of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or cost less than $40,000, and in the case of goods, are not re-supplied by You. With respect to goods, these guarantees include a guarantee that the goods:
 - (i) are of acceptable quality (unless We made known to You the reasons why the goods may not be of acceptable quality before purchase, for example, by drawing any fault or defect to Your attention);
 - (ii) fit for the purpose which We represented to You;
 - (iii) fit for the purpose or task for which You acquired the goods, provided You made that purpose known to Us before purchase;
 - (iv) match the description, sample or demonstration model You were provided; and
 - (v) comply with any express warranty given in relation to the goods.
- (b) With respect to services, these guarantees include that: the services will be rendered with due care and skill; the services and any product resulting from the services will be fit for the purpose or task for which You acquired the services or the result You expected the services to achieve, provided You made the purpose or result known to Us before purchase; and if a time is not specified for completion of the services, the services will be supplied within a reasonable time.
- (c) These guarantees give You rights against Us that We cannot limit or exclude, subject to clause 18.1(d). For example, if a failure to meet a guarantee is a major failure, then in relation to goods and depending on the circumstances, You may be entitled to a replacement or refund, and in relation to services, You may be entitled to terminate the contract and obtain a refund. If a failure does not amount to a major failure, You are entitled to ask Us to remedy the failure. In this case, we are able to choose how to remedy the failure, including by repairing or replacing goods.

This clause 18.1(c) is only intended to provide some examples of the rights You may have against Us. It is not an exhaustive statement of the circumstances in which You may be entitled to a remedy under the Australian Consumer Law.

- (d) Where the goods or services supplied to You are not of a kind ordinarily acquired for personal, domestic or household use or consumption, Our liability for breach of a guarantee (other than liability for guarantees as to title, undisclosed securities and undisturbed possession in relation to goods supplied to You, which We cannot limit) is limited to doing one or more of the following:
 - (i) in the case of goods,
 - (A) the replacement of the goods or the supply of equivalent goods;
 - (B) the repair of the goods;
 - (C) the payment of the cost of replacing the goods or acquiring equivalent goods; or
 - (D) the payment of the cost of having the goods repaired; and
 - (ii) in the case of services,
 - (A) the supply of the services again; or
 - (B) the payment of the cost of having the services supplied again.
- (e) We cannot limit Our liability as set out in clause 18.1(d) if You establish that it would not be fair or reasonable for Us to do so.
- (f) Except as provided in clause 18.1(d), nothing in Your agreement excludes, restricts or modifies rights which You have under the Australian Consumer Law in respect of the consumer guarantees.
